IDENTITY IN DOUBT.

The Name of a Dead Man Canno Be Fully Established.

The body of the man who was found Tuesday morning at the limekiln of the Washington Gaslight Company, on Twenty-seventh street northwest, and supposed to be that of Walter L. King, was removed yesterday morning from the Sixth precinct morgue to Gawler's undertaking establish There is still some doubt in the minds of King's relatives as to whether the man is really King. Col. R. G. Ruther-ford, a brother-in-law of King, called at the undertaker's yesterday afternoon, and after viewing the remains expressed the opinion that the man was another than his relative. The police, who have known "Lowry" King for the past dozen years, may there is no doubt but that he is the

The certificate of death from alcoholism, given by Coroner Hammett, was made out in the name of Walter L King. The body will be held at the undertaker's rooms until tomorrow morning, when some of the officials at the workhouse where King was frequently confined will view the hody for the purpose of identifying it if possible.
